PERSONAL STATEMENT

I love being a lawyer. I have been involved with the Cuban American Bar Association for over twenty-five years. I applaud the continuing efforts of the organization to provide pro bono legal services to the Hispanic community. Helping create The Florida Bar's "ONE" campaign to encourage lawyer participation in pro bono efforts is one of the projects of which I am most proud.

Cori led the team that confirmed the Chapter 11 plan of one of the largest distributors of smart phones, tablets and accessories to Latin America. The confirmation of the plan occurred within eight months of filing the petition. Cori also led the team that represented the owner of a luxury hotel in Bal Harbour, Florida. an interest in the property. She also represented the corporate owner-operator of a prestigious golf facility on the west coast of Florida. The company required a debt restructuring in the aftermath of the 2008 financial crisis and the accompanying downturn in Florida real estate values. She was instrumental in bringing about a consensual Chapter 11 plan that enabled the company to continue operations and emerge with a healthy balance sheet.

Receiverships

Cori has been appointed receiver and represented receivers in several cases pending in state court and federal court. She is currently serving as equity receiver in a $100 million Ponzi scheme case initiated by the SEC. Working to achieve a recovery for victims is one of the most important work she does.

Restructurings

Many of Cori's more successful cases/clients never see a courtroom. She has negotiated numerous workouts for corporations and high net worth individuals. She measures success by the control maintained by her clients over their businesses and the amount of the debt restructured as a result of finding consensual solutions to problems.
